Felicia Baca is the Executive Director of the Salt Lake City Arts Council, acting as an advocate, ambassador, and relationship-builder to elevate artists, organizations, and public policy while facilitating opportunities for all residents to engage in the arts. Her hope is to further the development of an arts ecosystem that centers equity and inclusion and considers art and cultural engagement as essential for prosperity, belonging, and well-being.

The Yellow Rose of Texas

There's a yellow rose in Texas that I am goanna see
Nobody else could miss her, not half as much as me
She cried so when I left her, it like to broke my heart
And if I ever find her we never move apart

Where the Rio Grande is flowin', and starry skies are bright
She walks along the river in the quiet summer night
I know that she remembers when we parted long ago
I promised to return and not to leave her so

She's the sweetest little rosebud that Texas ever knew
Her eyes are bright as diamonds, they sparkle like the dew
You may talk about your Clementine and sing of Rosa Lee
But the Yellow Rose of Texas is the only girl for me.

WELCOME SONG

Welcome to Sugar House Rotary,
We're mighty glad you are here
We'd like to sing you a long song
But a wrong song might appear
So sit you down and make some Friends today . . . RIGHT HERE
