MARK & SALLY DIETLEIN

In 198, Mark Dietlein and his wife, Sally, co-founded Hale Centre Theatre along with his grandparents, Ruth and Nathan Hale and Sally Hale Rice. Hale Centre Theatre currently plays to an audience of 250,000 patrons each year and has become the nation's highest attended community theatre. Hale Centre Theatre's new proposed home will consist of 11.5 acres at 9950 Monroe Street, Sandy, Utah just east of Interstate 15. The lease with West Valley City expires in 2016. The new site will feature three performance spaces with a total of 1,800 seats, which is triple the size of its current space in West Valley City.

Mark is the current president and chief executive officer of Hale Centre Theatre in Utah. He served for six years as a member of the Young Men General Board of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and as a Scout leader. He is the son of Sandra and Allan Dietlein, and the oldest grandson of Ruth and Nathan Hale.

Sally Maynard Dietlein is the current vice-president of the Hale Centre Theatre. Sally has written six full-scale musicals, all of which have been produced at Hale Centre Theatre and other theatres throughout the country. Sally also finds time to serve the community outside of theatre, including serving on the board of the American Lung Association's Utah branch. As executive producer for Hale Centre Theatre, she oversees all areas of the production process including all elements of design and direction. Recently, she has produced critically acclaimed productions of The Scarlet Pimpernel, Ragtime, Beauty and the Beast, Little Women, and The Civil War.

Dear Rotary Club President:

On behalf of the Cache Valley Morning, Logan, and Brigham City Rotary Clubs, we want to welcome you and your club members to beautiful Cache Valley next month for the District 5420 annual district conference. We have been working closely with District Governor Steve Skinner to host a memorable visit to our mountain community. Not only will we be instructed in and inspired by experts in the art of Rotary but we think the entertainment and fellowship events will create opportunities to become more familiar with the hundreds of Rotarians throughout the State of Utah who choose to make a difference through selfless efforts.

As part of our efforts to raise funds for the Rotary Foundation, we will once again be featuring a silent auction.

We are inviting each club to donate one or more items for the auction and would encourage you to consider items that are of a minimum of $50.00 in value. With solid participation from our District clubs, we hope to raise several thousand dollars for the Foundation. We also invite you to bring your club banner so that it can be proudly displayed in the room where the auction items, banquets and plenary sessions will be held.

The speaker slate is nationally renowned, the golf course is well-groomed, the entertainment is right out of Broadway, and multiple events for spouses should provide a delightful weekend for all who attend.

We very much look forward to greeting you at Riverwoods Conference Center located on the banks of the beautiful Logan River in downtown Logan on May 14-16th.

www.utahrotary.org is waiting for you and your club members to sign on and get registered right now!

Trace Skeen,
2014 Conference Comm. Chair
