Greeter: Jon McKenzie
Song: HEY LOOK ME OVER
Pledge/4-Way: Frank Medina
Prayer/Thought: Cassie Craig
Guest Intro: Rich Young
Sgt. At Arms: Mr. Barry Bank

Piano: Craig Kaelin

Conductor: Dave Baranowski

*Hey, look me over, lend me an ear;
Fresh out of clover, mortgaged up to here.*

But don't pass the plate, folks, don't pass the cup.

*I figure whenever you're down and out, the only way is up.
And I'll be up like a rosebud, high on the vine.*

Don't thumb your nose, bud, take a tip from mine.

*I'm a little bit short of the elbow room, but let me get me some.
And look out world here I come!*

Good friends are hard to find,
harder to leave,
and impossible to forget.

WELCOME SONG

Song by Wally Williams (Former Club Member)

*Welcome to Sugar House Rotary,
We're mighty glad you are here
We'd like to sing you a long song
But a wrong song might appear So sit you down and make some Friends today . . . RIGHT HERE!*

*I love the fact that visiting Rotarians from our recent meetings have remarked about the incredible energy in the room!
A compliment to you all!*

CONNOR ESTES

SPY HOP PRODUCTIONS

SPY – HOP (v): the act in which a dolphin rises above the water in order to navigate and determine its position in relation to other members of the pod; 2. To look ahead; 3. To tune in.

Spy Hop's mission is to mentor young people in the digital media arts to help them find their voice, tell their stories, and be empowered to affect positive change in their lives, their communities, and the world.

We envision a world in which all young people possess the skills and mindsets necessary for future success and that their voices are heard and valued in their communities.

Since 1999, Spy Hop has mentored Utah's young people in the digital media arts as a vehicle for free expression, self-discovery, critical thinking, and skilled participation. Our after-school program and community programs in film, audio, music and design are a model for youth development programs across the nation and Spy Hop is recognized by the White House as a leading nonprofit art and humanities organization.

When our students gain digital media knowledge, they are empowered to move from being a passive consumer of media to an active and engaged producer. And, when their individual and collective ideas are encouraged and embraced, they are empowered to become active and engaged citizens.

WHAT A WONDERFUL GIFT!

A few weeks ago, Kevin Draper from Yuma, AZ visited our Rotary to say 'Thank You' for the scholarship The Sugar House Rotary gave him a little over 50 years ago. It was a wonderful story about his work life and how this scholarship helped boomerang his career. At the end of the meeting, Kevin graciously donated $2,000 to our club which will be deposited in the general club account.

We thank Kevin for paying it forward and for his continued example!
