Speaker: Mindy Smith

Mindy Smith is the Coordinator for the Highland High Families Support program, which addresses physical needs of students. Highland High, just east of Sugar House Park, has an incredibly diverse student body, both economically and ethnically. There are 43 languages spoken by students at Highland. The student body includes 120 refugees and 70 homeless students. Forty three percent of the students are at or below the poverty line. The Families Support program has grown over about the last 9 years from Mindy leading volunteers to help with needs they observed. The program now includes a food pantry, a clothes “store” (gently used donated clothes), provides school supplies and hygiene kits, and arranges for glasses and dental care. Mindy plans on bringing several students with her to help discuss the program. Mindy, her husband Tim, and their children live about a mile east of Highland High School.
