DET. COOPER LANDVATTER CIU, District 7, SLC Police

Detective Landvatter has worked for the police department for twelve years. During his employment, he has worked a variety of different assignments. Cooper's first assignment was in patrol, where he worked primarily in the Sugar House area during the graveyard shift. After that, he became a part of the east side bike squad which patrolled the Sugar House Area. Landvatter then became a narcotic detective with the DEA taskforce for Salt Lake County. Later he would join the Crisis Intervention Team, which has a dual mission of developing solutions for cases where police responded to individuals with mental illness and de-escalate them during their interactions.
