Casey would waltz with the Strawberry blonde,

And the band played on.

He'd glide 'cross the floor with the girl he adored,

And the band played on.

Oh his heart was so loaded it nearly exploded,

The poor girl would shake with alarm.

He'd ne'er leave the girl with the strawberry curls.

And the band played on.

WELCOME SONG

Song by Wally Williams (Former Club Member)

Welcome to Sugar House Rotary,
We're mighty glad you are here
We'd like to sing you a long song
But a wrong song might appear
So sit you down and make some friends today . . . Right Here!

Rebecca J. Dutson Chief Executive Officer The Children's Center

Rebecca Dutson is Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of The Children's Center—where hope and healing happen. As CEO, Rebecca combines her personal passion for changing lives and building strong community with more than 25 years of local and national nonprofit leadership. She drives the organization's vision, mission, and strategy. She inspires and leads her team of more than 100 dedicated employees to provide life-changing mental and behavioral health services to nearly 2,000 children and their families each year. The organization is unique—one of a handful providing similar services throughout the U.S.

Rebecca is recognized for her business acumen and innovative style, receiving the distinction from Utah Business magazine as one of Utah's Rising Stars—Forty Under 40, and 30 Women to Watch. Building a strong organizational culture is key to her success in creating high-performing teams and breaking through the status quo. As a member of Salt Lake Chamber Board of Governors, she currently chairs the annual Women & Business Conference.

Prior to joining The Children's Center, Rebecca worked for United Way Worldwide (UWW), the world's largest privately-funded nonprofit. As Senior Director, Major Donor Relations, Rebecca led strategies to capitalize on one of the fastest
