Take Me Out to the Ball Game

Take me out to the ball game,
Take me out with the crowd;
Buy me some peanuts and Cracker
Jack,
I don't care if I never get back.
Let me root,
root, root for the home team,
If they don't win, it's a shame.
For it's one, two,
three strikes, you're out,
At the old ball game.

Mike Hickey – 10/5
Wally Brown would have been 90
Todd Suekawa – 10/13

ANNIVERSARIES

Therese & Fred Milad 10/29

THE BIRTHDAY SONG

Fellow Rotarians, we're glad you're here,
For we understand your birthday
dates are near;
So if it's past, today, tomorrow,
Here's a phrase we'll gladly borrow:
Happy birthday to you!

WELCOME SONG

Welcome to Sugar House Rotary,
We're mighty glad you are here
We'd like to sing you a long song
But a wrong song might appear
So sit you down and make some Friends today . . . RIGHT HERE

BIRTHDAYS

decided to co-found Beck Development and leverage his extensive experience working with individuals and municipalities to create more livable and sustainable communities through the redevelopment of underutilized urban real estate.

President, California Oakland Mission The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints July 2006 to Jul 2009.

Presided over 500 young men and women serving a mission for the church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. They represented over 40 countries of the world. This was a volunteer position.

Married to Trudi who is even more wonderful than Jim. My opinion.

Jim Beck

Jim has been an active and successful community and business leader in the greater Salt Lake City region for over forty years. He has served as president and/or member of many boards and organizations, including: the South Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, the South Salt Lake Honorary Colonels, Amicus, LDS Hospital, and Rotary among others. He has owned several successful office product companies and most recently is the owner of Salt Lake Legal. In 2016, he

Dale Lambert

Dale was born in Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, March 1, 1946. One of the original Canadian anchor babies. Dale's mother was from Canada and his father worked for the navy in underwater acoustic research. They moved to San Diego later that year.

Dale has a twin brother Glen, who is a member of the Salt Lake Rotary Club.

Dale moved to Salt Lake City when he was 11. This was after he contracted polio when he was three. Poignantly an aunt has some old home movies of Dale running around. He was the poster child for the March of Dimes in San Diego.

Dale attended Evergreen Jr. High and Olympus High School. He would shoot hoops in his driveway holding onto one crutch.

In college Dale decided to attend law school. He didn't know any lawyers

Upcoming Meetings

3rd Thursday, October 24: Business meeting with Jim Beck and Dale Lambert speaking.

but thought it would be good for someone who liked debate.

Dale served an LDS mission in Florida. The church found a Nash Rambler with an automatic transmission that he used for the entire two years.

As an attorney he worked initially for Congressman Gunn McKay. Fortunately this is where he met his wife, Jan. She worked for Scoop Jackson. After Washington, he has remained in Salt Lake City practicing for Christensen and Jensen until he retired.

He was chair of the Democratic Party when Matheson was governor. He
