Anchors Aweigh

Stand Navy out to sea,
Fight our battle cry
We'll never change our course,
So vicious foe steer shy-y-y-y.
Roll out the TNT,
Anchors Aweigh.
Sail on to victory
And sink their bones to Davy Jones, hooray!

Anchors Aweigh, my boys,
Anchors Aweigh.
Farewell to foreign shores,
We sail at break of day-ay-ay-ay.
Through our last night ashore,
Drink to the foam,
Until we meet once more.
Here's wishing you a happy voyage home.

WELCOME SONG

Welcome to Sugar House Rotary,
We're mighty glad you are here
We'd like to sing you a long song
But a wrong song might appear
So sit you down and make some Friends today, RIGHT HERE.

BIRTHDAYS

THE BIRTHDAY SONG

Fellow Rotarians, we're glad you're here,
For we understand your birthday
dates are near;
So if it's past, today, tomorrow,
Here's a phrase we'll gladly borrow:
Happy birthday to you!

Wayne Kartchner

Wayne is a frequent storyteller at many local events and president of the Farmington Bay chapter of the Utah Storytelling Guild.

He started lying storytelling at a young age, following the example of his father. He put his six children to bed with stories of George Bunny and space visitors. Now with 22 grandchildren, including two sets of twins, he keeps in practice.

Wayne's alter ego owns a mercantile in Hubbard County where he interacts with various fairy tale characters.

Wayne speaks fluent Spanish, pretty good French and has studied Mandarin for two years but his accent is so bad that when he meets native Chinese, they can't understand him yet.

Other things that Jeff Driggs might not know about Wayne:

1. Spent four years in the Davis County Jail. A jail that David Baranowski designed; holding religious services.
2. Tutor at the Mexican Consul in Salt Lake City in 2003.
3. Graduated from Weber State University, when it was still a college. 1980. His GPA is posted on the internet, and he did pretty well. Ask him for details.
4. Retired in 2019. Something the editor of this newsletter is still trying to figure out.
